

NWU LIS eBooks Webinar

29 June 2022
10h00 - 12h30

Driving print collection use in digital content in a hybrid learning environment

NWU LIS eBooks Webinar

Theme: Driving print collection use in digital content in a hybrid learning environment

29 June 2022
10h00 - 12h30

Caroline Dean

Daneshree Moodley

Dudu Nkosi

Keith Stanley

Carine Basson

Pieter du Plessis

The NWU Library and Information Services epitomises online learning in the midst of Covid-19 and beyond. e-Books become essential resources in this model, thus exploring effective strategies that will enhance usage becomes paramount. The webinar presents an opportunity to share knowledge and experiences on the latest academic library strategies that strengthens and promote digital content.

Target audience: Academic staff, postgraduate students, librarians and information services community

Programme

Session 1

Welcoming (10h00 – 10h10)	Ms Neli Kaunda (Director – Shared Services @ NWU)
The NWU eBooks perspective. (10h10 -10:25)	Hendra Pretorius (Director – Information and Learning Services @ NWU)
Driving e-books use in a hybrid learning environment (10:25 – 10:40)	Ms Dudu Nkosi (Acting Executive Director: Library and Information Services / Director: Information Resources Content Management)
The case of UCT eBooks (10:40 – 10:55)	Caroline Dean (Principal Librarian @ UCT)
Becoming more productive with the e-books (10:55 – 11:10)	Ms Daneshree Moodley (Consultant @ Elsevier Sub Saharan Africa)
Q&A (11:10 – 11:20)	Dr Tiyani Mabunda (Director – Research and Open Scholarship @ NWU)
Comfort break – 11:20 – 11:30

Session 2

NWU E-resources demonstration (11:30 - 11:45)	Ms Carine Basson (Senior Librarian – e-Resources & Periodicals @ NWU)
Driving e-content usage in a hybrid learning environment (11:45 - 12:00)	Mr Keith Stanley (International Sales Manager @ Browns Books UK)
Finger licking good: turning e-book pages. (12:00 - 12:15)	Mr Pieter Du Plessis (Senior Librarian: Law @ Stellenbosch University)
Q&A (12:15 -12:25)	Dr Tiyani Mabunda (Director – Research and Open Scholarship @ NWU)
Vote of Thanks (12:25 - 12:30)	Dr Mathew Moyo (Chief Director – NWU LIS)